MESSAGES FROM THE GOVERNOR

January 29, 2008

To the Honorable, the Senate of the State of Washington

Ladies and Gentlemen:

In compliance with the provisions of Article III, Section 11, of the constitution of the State of Washington, the Governor hereby submits her report of each case of reprieve, commutation or pardon that she has granted since the adjournment of the 2007 Regular session of the 60th Legislature, copies of which are attached.

Sincerely,
 Richard E. Mitchell
 General Counsel

CONDITIONAL COMMUTATION OF THOMAS W. MEGGYSEY

To All To Whom These Presents Shall Come, Greetings:

WHEREAS, on the night of July 26, 1995, Mr. Meggyesy attended a party at his neighbor's apartment. Both Mr. Meggyesy and his neighbor were drinking significantly throughout the evening. At some point that evening, the two men got into a verbal and physical altercation. Mr. Meggyesy left, but he returned shortly thereafter with a gun. Mr. Meggyesy knocked on the door and, as it opened, shot his neighbor in the abdomen, narrowly missing his heart.

WHEREAS, on December 7, 1995, Mr. Meggyesy was convicted of First Degree Assault and sentenced to 93 months, plus 60 months for a gun enhancement. He does not have any prior convictions.

WHEREAS, while appealing his conviction, Mr. Meggyesy was released from prison on bond for over two years. During that time, Mr. Meggyesy married, purchased a home, and had no encounters with the law. On April 6, 1998, Mr. Meggyesy lost his appeal and returned to prison. Since being incarcerated, Mr. Meggyesy has served his time as a model citizen. He has maintained an infraction free record, taken advantage of programming opportunities and tutored other inmates. As a result of his conduct, Mr. Meggyesy has earned the maximum amount of good time.

WHEREAS, Mr. Meggyesy's health is deteriorating and his elbow, back and knees have been hurting because of his years as a contractor and football player. After his release, Mr. Meggyesy's health care needs will be covered through his wife's medical insurance.

WHEREAS many family members, friends, employers, and former customers and co-workers wrote or spoke on Mr. Meggyesy's behalf. The supporters expressed that they are committed to helping support him whenever he is released. The Snohomish County Prosecutor's Office took no position on the clemency petition, and no one submitted materials opposing Mr. Meggyesy's petition.

WHEREAS, I have reviewed all pertinent facts and circumstances surrounding this matter, the circumstances of the crime, and the favorable recommendation of the Washington State Clemency and Pardons Board and, in light of the foregoing, I have determined that the best interests of justice will be served by this action.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Christine O. Gregoire, by virtue of the power vested in me as Governor of the State of Washington, hereby grant to Thomas W. Meggyesy a Conditional Commutation of the remainder of his sentence subject to the following conditions, all of which commence as of the date of this document:

- 1) He shall not commit any gross misdemeanors or felonies for 5 years;
- 2) He shall not possess any firearms for 10 years;
- 3) He shall not have any contact with the victim for 10 years; and
- 4) He must successfully complete an alcohol treatment and anger management program within 12 months of the granting of this Conditional Commutation.

PROVIDED that in the event Mr. Meggyesy is convicted of any offense classified as a gross misdemeanor or felony in the state of Washington or violates any condition of this commutation as determined by the Governor following his release, the Conditional Commutation is revoked without notice and the sentence of the court reinstated, whereupon Mr. Meggyesy will be immediately returned to the Washington Corrections Center or any such facility as the Secretary of Corrections deems appropriate. The Department of Corrections shall provide a written report to the Clemency and Pardons Board regarding the violation of this Conditional Commutation.

TWENTY-SIXTH DAY, FEBRUARY 8, 2008

2008 REGULAR SESSION

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the State of Washington to be affixed at Olympia on this 11th day of April, A.D., two thousand and seven.

Secretary of State

CHRISTINE O. GREGOIRE,
Governor of Washington

CONDITIONAL PARDON
OF

SEAL

BY THE GOVERNOR

SAM REED
Secretary of State

FULL AND UNCONDITIONAL PARDON
STANLEY CATRON

To All to Whom These Presents Shall Come, Greetings:

WHEREAS, in 1985, Stanley M. Catron was convicted of Indecent Liberties after having sexual contact with his 13-year old stepdaughter. Immediately after the sexual contact occurred, Mr Catron took his victim to the police station and turned himself in.

WHEREAS, Mr. Catron demonstrated immediate remorse, openly admitted his guilt, cared for his victim and assisted in her rehabilitation. On July 21, 1994, the Yakima County Superior Court issued a Certificate of Rehabilitation to him. Since his conviction, he has completed a year of psychotherapy and abided by all conditions of his probation. Additionally, Mr Catron has had no further arrests or convictions.

WHEREAS, Mr. Catron's victim testified that she has forgiven Mr. Catron and supports his petition to the Governor's Office. In light of the victim's forgiveness, the Yakima County Prosecuting Attorney also supports Mr. Catron's petition.

WHEREAS, Mr. Catron's gun rights were restored by the Bureau of Alcohol Tobacco and Firearms in 1989. However, in light of his conviction for Indecent Liberties, those rights were revoked. Mr. Catron has petitioned the Governor for a pardon so that he may again lawfully own and possess firearms.

WHEREAS, I have reviewed all pertinent facts and circumstances surrounding this matter, the circumstances of the crime, and the favorable recommendation of the Washington State Clemency and Pardons Board and, in light of the foregoing, I have determined that the best interests of justice will be served by this action.

NOW, THEREFORE, I Christine O. Gregoire, by virtue of the power vested in me as Governor of the State of Washington, hereby grant to Stanley M. Catron the FULL AND UNCONDITIONAL pardon of his conviction of Indecent Liberties so that he may lawfully own and possess firearms.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the State of Washington to be affixed at Olympia on this 4th day of April, A.D., two thousand and seven.

CHRISTINE O. GREGOIRE,
Governor of Washington

SEAL

BY THE GOVERNOR

To All to Whom These Presents Shall Come, Greetings:

WHEREAS, on August 10, 2004, Mr. Egan and a friend were at a nightclub in Seattle when a club patron began an argument with Mr. Egan's friend. As the altercation escalated, the patron punched Mr. Egan's friend and Mr. Egan intervened, breaking a beer bottle on the man's head. After the altercation, all the individuals involved were ejected from the nightclub, but Mr. Egan and his friend later returned to retrieve some belongings. The nightclub employees called 911 and Mr. Egan was arrested.

WHEREAS, on January 26, 2006, Mr. Egan was convicted of Third Degree Assault. As part of his probation requirements, Mr. Egan cannot possess any firearms or ammunition.

WHEREAS, Todd Amis, Sergeant First Class of the Army Special Forces, wrote a letter on Mr. Egan's behalf stating that he is a vital asset to the Army's Special Operations unit and the Global War on Terrorism. Mr. Amis represented that if Mr. Egan cannot have his right to carry firearms restored, then he would be dismissed from the military.

WHEREAS, Mr. Egan's valuable Special Operations skills and experience make him a much needed and extraordinary asset to the military. In addition, without his ability to possess firearms, Mr. Egan cannot fully engage in his Special Forces unit as it combats the War on Terrorism.

WHEREAS, at the clemency hearing, Mr. Egan apologized for his actions and poor judgement. He recognized that this conviction has placed his military career on the line and expressed his desire to continue serving his country as a member of the Army. Mr. Egan's attorney pointed out that his client's girlfriend and father, a veteran, were present to show their support. The King County Prosecutor's Office did not submit any materials regarding Mr. Egan's petition.

WHEREAS, I have reviewed all pertinent facts and circumstance surrounding this matter, the circumstances of the crime, and the favorable recommendation of the Washington State Clemency and Pardons Board. In light of the foregoing, I have determined that the best interests of justice will be served by this action.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Christine O. Gregoire, by virtue of the power vested in me as Governor of the State of Washington, hereby grant to Michael N. Egan a CONDITIONAL PARDON subject to the following conditions: he does not commit any gross misdemeanors or felonies for 4 years; he does not possess firearms for any reason outside of his military duties for 4 years he does not have contact with the victims of his assault for 4 years; and he successfully completes an anger management program within 4 years. PROVIDED that in the event Mr. Egan is convicted of any offense classified as a gross misdemeanor or felony in the state of Washington or violates the conditions of this commutation within the 4 years following his release, as determined by the Governor, the Conditional Pardon is revoked without notice.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the State of Washington to be affixed at Olympia on this 2nd day of April, A.D., two

IRENEO PARRILLA

To All to Whom These Presents Shall Come, Greetings:

WHEREAS, Ireneo Parrilla is a 49 year old legal resident of Filipino descent. Mr. Parrilla is married with four children. His wife and children are all U. S. citizens. As the primary wage earner for his family, he has worked as a registered surgical nurse in the U.S. and overseas for over 20 years. He has no prior convictions.

WHEREAS, in December of 2000, Mr. Parrilla and his young son attended a party. While at the party, an intoxicated Mr. Parrilla inappropriately touched an eight year old girl. He was subsequently charged with and plead guilty to the misdemeanor offense of Communication with a Minor for Immoral Purposes. Mr. Parrilla pled guilty rather than drag the victim and his family through a trial. According to Mr. Parrilla, his criminal defense attorney failed to advise him that pleading guilty could result in deportation under federal immigration law.

WHEREAS, after he served his sentence and completed Alcohol and Drug Information School in January 2003, the U. S. Department of Homeland Security initiated deportation proceedings against Mr. Parrilla. Since August 18, 2003, Mr. Parrilla has been incarcerated, subject to deportation proceedings, and was eventually deported. He could have returned to the Philippines on his own volition, but chose to remain in prison in order to defend against the deportation and remain in the U. S. with his family. Mr. Parrilla exhausted judicial and immigration process, leaving a gubernatorial pardon as his only remedy.

WHEREAS, Mr. Parrilla has accepted responsibility and shown remorse for his criminal actions. He has compellingly demonstrated his commitment to rejoin and support his family and to continue to serve Washington State as an experienced surgical nurse. Two of his Children, who have lived in the U. S. all of their lives, expressed profound concern with the impact of their father's deportation. Along with his handwritten petition, Mr. Parrilla submitted over 125 signatures of support.

WHEREAS, Mr. Parrilla's case presents a conflict between state and federal classifications over the same crime. Washington State's criminal code classifies "Communication with a Minor for Immoral Purposes" as a misdemeanor, while federal immigration law classifies it as a deportable crime of "moral turpitude." Mr. Parrilla's representation that his defense attorney failed to advise him on the status of federal immigration law was un rebutted. Given the potential for permanent separation from his family, the fact that Mr. Parrilla pled guilty is suggestive of inadequate counsel.

WHEREAS, the Board found deportation for a misdemeanor disproportionate punishment, particularly in light of the significant disruption the deportation would have to the Parrilla family. Second, the Board considered Mr. Parrilla's decision to remain incarcerated for more than three years, when the original sentence was only 90 days, sufficient punishment. Third, the Board found significant Mr. Parrilla's differences in communication and legal understanding. As a result of these reasons, the Board recommended that the Governor pardon Mr. Parrilla.

WHEREAS, I have reviewed all pertinent facts and circumstances surrounding this matter, the circumstances of the crime, and the favorable recommendation of the Washington State Clemency and Pardons Board. In light of the foregoing, I have determined that the best interests of justice will be served by this action.

NOW, THEREFORE, I Christine O. Gregoire, by virtue of the power vested in me as Governor of the State of Washington, hereby grant to Ireneo Parrilla this full and unconditional pardon of his conviction of Communication with a Minor for Immoral Purposes so that he may live with his family in the United States.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the State of Washington to be affixed at Olympia on this 2nd day of April, A.D., two thousand and seven.

KIZZY TYNELL MCNEAL

To All to Whom These Presents Shall Come, Greetings

WHEREAS, when she was nineteen years old, Kizzy Tynell McNeal, aka Kizzy Tynell Moore, returned home to the apartment she shared with her husband after visiting her mother in Alaska to find another woman in her bed. Ms. McNeal retrieved a butcher knife from the kitchen and swung the knife several times at her husband, almost striking him. Ms. McNeal was convicted of Assault in the Third Degree.

WHEREAS, since her conviction in 1996, Ms. McNeal has focused on her education and rehabilitation. She has succeeded academically and personally. She has earned 47 credits at the University of Anchorage and Liberty University and has remarried and started a family. Additionally, she served five years in the North Carolina National Guard and is currently enlisted in the United States Army, rank E-4, pursuing a career as a combat medic.

WHEREAS, Ms. McNeal's prior conviction prevents her from finishing her training as a combat medic and joining her military unit in Iraq.

WHEREAS, the Chief Criminal Deputy, for the Pierce County Prosecutor's Office, has stated that his office is not opposed to a pardon for Ms. McNeal, as she has persuasively shown her rehabilitation.

WHEREAS, I have reviewed all pertinent facts and

SHEILA TUGADE

To All to Whom These Presents Shall Come, Greetings:

WHEREAS, Ms. Tugade was charged with Forgery when she stole her sister-in-law's credit card and made a purchase at Nordstrom and later attempted to return the merchandise for cash. Ms. Tugade was later arrested, prosecuted and sentenced to community service and supervision by Washington State's Department of Corrections.

WHEREAS, upon the Department of Corrections termination of supervision, notice was sent to Ms. Tugade stating she had not completed all her community service hours, prompting a hearing before the King County Superior Court. Without written proof of completion, the court ordered eight hours of jail time in lieu of community service completion. This order was issued on a Friday. On the subsequent Monday, Ms. Tugade presented written proof of her completion of community service hours to the court via the public defender's agency. While the agency submitted a proposed order striking the jail time, it did not ask the court to issue a Certificate of Discharge.

WHEREAS, current state law allows Ms. Tugade to request vacation of her conviction five years from the date of her discharge. Since the Certificate of Discharge was not initially issued and an order of discharge cannot be backdated, the five-year statutory clock would start only upon Ms. Tugade's current request for an order of discharge.

WHEREAS, a nunc pro tunc order will not provide a remedy because the court did not originally intend to issue a Certificate of Discharge.

WHEREAS, over ten years have elapsed since Ms. Tugade's conviction without any further arrests or convictions. Her current conviction of record has been an impediment to her gaining permanent employment.

WHEREAS, the prosecutor does not oppose Ms. Tugade's petition. The victim has written a letter of support of granting the petition, and restitution has been paid in full.

WHEREAS, I have reviewed all pertinent facts and circumstances surrounding this matter, the circumstances of the crime, and the favorable recommendation of the Washington State Clemency and Pardons Board. In light of the foregoing, I have determined that the best interests of justice will be served by this action.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Christine O. Gregoire, by virtue of the power vested in me as Governor of the State of Washington, hereby grant to Sheila Tugade, this full and unconditional pardon of her conviction of Forgery so that she may pursue permanent and gainful employment.

WHEREAS, when he was nineteen years old, over ten years ago, Nghia T. Luu, attempted to take a computer from a retail store. The store's security stopped him before he left the premises. Mr. Luu was subsequently convicted of Theft in the First Degree.

WHEREAS, since his conviction, Mr. Luu has focused on his education and rehabilitation. He has succeeded academically and personally, working in his single mother's business as well as assisting her financially. He is currently enrolled in community college with a high grade point average and wishes to apply to pharmacy school. He has been advised, however, that his conviction may preclude him from completing his education objectives. Mr. Luu has demonstrated his potential to be successful in post collegiate academics and his potential to succeed professionally.

WHEREAS, since his conviction in 1998, Mr. Luu has had no subsequent contact with Washington State law enforcement.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Pridemore: "Oh Mr. President, I couldn't help but notice that our newest freshman just gave his first speech on the floor of the senate. We have a tradition here because we're a body of tradition, we're people who respect the past, we respect and admire those who have served on this floor in the past so we try to honor the traditions that they honored and one of the traditions is to celebrate the new speech. We are a body that knows that if don't respect and admire speakers of the past then they won't be people who respect and admire us in the future looking back when our time here is done. (Phone rings) I'm sorry Mr. President. I am expecting a really critical call. Is it ok if I take this, just this one time?"

President Owen: "Senator Pridemore, make it quick, this is totally out of order Senator Pridemore."

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Pridemore: "This is Pridemore."

Voice on cellular telephone: "Pridemore, it's Poulsen."

Senator Pridemore: "I'm sorry?"

Former Senator Poulsen: "Erik Poulsen you putz. Hey, I need a big favor."

Senator Pridemore: "I'm sorry, sir. Are you from the forty-ninth?"

Former Senator Poulsen: "Dude, it's Poulsen. You remember. The guy who saved our climate change bill that got you name WCV environmental whacko of the year for? The one who fixed the e-waste bill you screwed up so badly and that stupid appliance repair bill, your first big bill, that I had to save because you couldn't even explain it in caucus!?"

Senator Pridemore: "You said Paulsen?"

Former Senator Poulsen: "Come on, man! Remember the Columbia River water agreement? The clean car bill? The green buildings bill? That stuff made history dude."

Senator Pridemore: "No, I'm sorry. I don't, well I kind of remember the water agreement. Kind of, I..."

Former Senator Poulsen: "Dude. I'm serious. I really need your help with this Maury Island issue --"

Senator Pridemore: "Now, wait a second. SIR. LOBBYING IS NOT PERMITTED ON THE FLOOR OF THE SENATE!"

Former Senator Poulsen: "Yea, but..."

Senator Pridemore (Closes telephone.): "I'm sorry, Mr. President. It was obviously a crank call. Yes, Senator McDermott you have arrived. Now you belong to the ages, you will be remembered in the hallowed halls of the Washington State Senate right along side all the other great men and women whom we revere from yesterday. Welcome to the Senate."

MOTION

At 10:44 a.m., on motion of Senator Eide, the Senate was declared to be at ease subject to the call of the President.

EVENING SESSION

The Senate was called to order at 5:16 p.m. by President Owen.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Fraser, the Senate reverted to the first order of business.
